Career Highlights:

Mr. Montalván has performed Construction Administration services for some of the most important historic restoration projects that R.J. Heisenbottle Architects has undertaken in the Greater Miami area. His most significant contribution to the firm has been his construction administration, supervision and contractor coordination work.

His diversified background includes an academic career where he has taught Architecture and Furniture Design at colleges in Miami, Florida and in the state of Washington. He has also done extensive work in architectural and furniture design. His current work involves the restoration of one of Miami's grandest historic estates, Vizcaya, where he is overseeing work at several buildings that make up the Vizcaya Village. Additionally, Mr. Montalván is coordinating the conversion of Vizcaya's Billiard and Smoking rooms to a new Café and Gift Shop.
