Career Highlights:

Mr. Prosser serves as Business Development Manager for R.J. Heisenbottle Architects, responsible for Project Acquisitions, Graphics and Client Relations. As a USGBC Accredited Professional in Leadership of Energy and Environmental Design (LEED), Mr. Prosser has a passion for sustainability and supervises all projects attempting to become LEED Certified.

Formerly with Zeidler Partnership Architects in West Palm Beach, Florida, Mr. Prosser excelled in project acquisition and schematic design, leading design presentations, 3D Modeling, GIS mapping and graphic design efforts. With extensive knowledge of Microsoft Project, Auto Cad and Excel, he prepared most construction schedules and schematic studies for Zeidler's extensive projects.

As a member of the Board of Directors for the Local Green Initiative, a 501 c3, Mr. Prosser has gained experience in not-for-profit development. The L.G.I. is currently working on two major projects, an affordable housing development and playground revitalizations for several underprivileged day cares.
