

Historic Preservation

R.J. Heisenbottle Architects, P.A. is an architecture, planning and interior design firm located in Coral Gables, Florida. Through the years we have built our reputation on superior service, client satisfaction and design excellence. Today, the firm is a leader in quality, high profile projects with an emphasis on corporate, governmental and institutional clients. Projects range from large scale historic preservation to office buildings, theaters, educational facilities and commercial interiors. Our architectural solutions are unique and often innovative, yet we seek a timeless architecture of well crafted buildings with durable materials, sensitive to their context.

The firm's background in planning includes large scale urban projects where creative redevelopment schemes are required for success. We have received numerous design awards for our work and our projects have warranted both local and national publication. Our team of professionals have extensive backgrounds in a wide variety of building types. Their efforts are supported by our depth of resources and state-of-the-art technology. At R.J. Heisenbottle Architects, our commitment is to provide you, our client, with the highest quality possible to ensure the success of your projects today and into the future.
